

June 28th – Saturday

h. 15.00

visit to the “Fondazione Rosellini per la letteratura popolare”
viale Bonopera 21

h. 16.30

Round table

“The Scientist as Detective / the Detective as Scientist”

Chair: Giorgio Turchetti and Alessandra Calanchi

Participants:

Alessandro Berselli (Non sono come voi 2007))

Stefano Guerra (psychiatrist; “Uno Studio in Holmes”)

Luciano Garofano (RIS of Parma; Delitti imperfetti 2006)

Adriano Rosellini (“Fondazione Rosellini per la letteratura popolare”)

Carlo Toffalori (University of Camerino; Il matematico in giallo 2007)

dinner

h. 21.00

Conference

“La polizia scientifica: uno sguardo al microscopio”

(The Scientific Police: a Look through the Microscope)

by Luciano Garofano, Colonel of the RIS and former magistrate con il patrocinio di:

acume2, Università di Urbino,
Centro Sistemi Complessi delle Marche

Scientific Committee

Gabriella Morisco	gabriella.morisco@uniurb.it
Giorgio Turchetti	turchett@bo.infn.it
Alessandra Calanchi	calfran@aliceposta.it
Gastone Castellani	gastone.castellani@unibo.it

Acume Staff

Valeria Savoia	valeria.savoia4@unibo.it
Ana Pano	ana.pano@unibo.it
Raffaella Valente	raffaella.valente2@unibo.it

University of Urbino “Carlo Bo”
Faculty of Foreign Languages

Conference The Case and the Canon

Urbino / Senigallia
26th, 27th, 28th June 2008

This conference is being organized by sub-Project 2 of the European thematic Network acume2. It includes the following sessions:

Anomalies, Discontinuities, Metaphors between Science and Literature

The Case in Crime Fiction: The Scientist as Detective /
The Detective as Scientist

June 26th - Thursday

Anomalies, Discontinuities, Metaphors between Science and Literature

Urbino, Aula Magna ex Rettorato – Via Saffi 2

h. 09.00

Greetings by Authorities

Opening and Welcome: Vita Fortunati (University of Bologna) and Gabriella Morisco (University of Urbino)

Chair: Claudio Franceschi (University of Bologna)

Giuliano Pancaldi (University of Bologna)
The Case and the Canon in Laboratory Life

Ferdinando Bersani (University of Bologna)
Mesmerism: from an Ambiguous Physical and Medical Canon to Psychology

coffee break

h. 11.30

Chair: Gabriella Morisco (University of Urbino)

Brian Hurwitz (King's College London)
Pathology in London Streets: Cases in James Parkinson's Essay on the Shaking Palsy (1817)

Heather Worthington (Cardiff University)
Reading the Body of Narrative: Seeking Scientific Evidence in Early Nineteenth-Century Criminography

Fabio Petrella (Centro Oriente Torino)
Numerology and Classification: "The Book of Creation" and "The Canon of Changes" (Sefer Yezirah and Yi jing)

lunch

h. 15.00

Chair: Gastone Castellani (University of Bologna)

Lucian Ancu (Radboud University Nijmegen)
Cases in Physics

Stefano Salvioli (University of Bologna)
The Dialectic Relationship between Case and Canon as a Driving Force of the Advancement of Medicine and Science

coffee break

h. 17.00

Chair: Vita Fortunati (University of Bologna)

Maria de Lurdes Sampaio (University of Porto)
Detective Fiction as the Paradise of the "Non-Hegemonic" Sciences

Maurizio Ascari (University of Bologna)
The Rise of Probability, Detection and the 'Unity of Design' between the 18th and the 19th Centuries

Takeshi Shimizu (BBC World)
Three Body Problem - Moriarty, the Dynamics of an Asteroid and Poincaré

dinner

June 27th - Friday

h. 09.00

Chair: Brian Hurwitz (King's College London)

Neil Vickers (King's College London)
Canonicity and the Psycho-Analytic Case History

Gabriella Morisco (University of Urbino)
19th Century American Asylums: 'Moral Treatment' and the Case of Married Women

James Whitehead (King's College, London)
From the Case to the Canon: Reclaiming the Insanity of Poetry in Victorian Literary Biography

coffee break

h. 11.00

Chair: Paola Spinuzzi (University of Ferrara)

Marino Bosinelli (University of Bologna)
Caso, scienze sperimentali e psicopatologia clinica.

Roberto Vecchiarelli (Academy of Fine Arts Urbino)
Cesare Lombroso and the "Ospedale de' Pazzi"

lunch

h. 15.00

Transfer to Senigallia. Stop at the Museum of Cartoceto, Pergola to visit The Gilded Bronzes (Roman Age)

dinner

June 28th - Saturday

Senigallia, Rotonda a Mare

The Case in Crime Fiction: The Scientist as Detective / The Detective as Scientist

h. 09.00

Greetings by Authorities

Chair: Ferdinando Bersani (University of Bologna)

Giorgio Turchetti and Graziano Servizi (University of Bologna)
The Canon of Integrability, the Scandal of Chaos, the Information Era: A Quick Trip View from Mechanicism to Complexity

Paolo Freguglia (L'Aquila University; Domus Galileiana Pisa; CIG Bologna)
Models and Reality, some Considerations about Relativism in Sciences

Gastone Castellani (University of Bologna)
Science, Numbers, Deductions and Predictability: A Cross Talk between Biometry and Biophysics

coffee break

h. 11.00

Chair: Maurizio Ascari (University of Bologna)

Bruno Giorgini (University of Bologna)
The Detective Stories Paradigm from the Black Holes to Complexity Researches

Alessandra Calanchi (University of Urbino)
Mr Sherlock Holmes and Dr John Watson: Interfacing Science and Fiction in the 'Sacred Canon'

Gabriele Mazzoni (University of Florence / "Uno Studio in Holmes")
Out of the 'Case'

lunch

...continued on next page...